Conventional carbon dating laboratory. Kyiv

Sample submision form for Radiocarbon dating services

Sample submision form for Radiocarbon dating services
	Submitter
Name:
Address
Telephone
Fax
Email
Date of Submission
	Conventional Radiocarbon Dating
Is: Small, Routine or High Precision
	Site
Name of Site
Description of Site
Nearest Town
Country
Map Coordinates
	Sample
Submitter sample code
Sample type (charcoal,wood, bone,shell,peat,other)
Specific Identification
Stratigraphy (single, one of the sequence, how many)
Has the sample been dried? Yes! or Not!
Weight of Sample submitted /g
Has this sample been dated before?
If Yes, give details
Potential contaminants? Roots, Carbonate, Other
If Other, give details
What period is the sample likely to belong to, e.g. Bronze Age, Late Neolithic, Boreal.
Is more material available?

Type of Investigation (e.g. archaeological, palaeoenvironmental, etc)
	Sampling Details
Name
Address
Date of Collection
Method of sampling
Treatment and storage
Comments
Publication if any

Shipment details

Each individually wrapped sample should be clearly labeled and packed in a sturdy container. Each shipment should contain a packing list including the name and address of the shipper.

Large rock and mineral samples can be sent in heavy plastic or fabric bags. Smaller samples and mineral separates should be sent in plastic bags, or plastic vials with secured tops. Samples sent in glass vials should be individually wrapped in several layers of packing material.

Samples sent for radiocarbon age determinations should be protected from sources of extraneous carbon. Charcoal and wood samples should be wrapped in aluminum foil or heavy plastic and should not be wrapped in paper.

All samples passing through Customs should be clearly labeled:

"SCIENTIFIC SAMPLES - NO COMMERCIAL VALUE - WILL BE DESTROYED IN THE ANALYSIS".

Do not claim a total value of more than US$1.

PLEASE ask DELIVERY ADDRESS BEFORE SENDING.

Conventional mail (Airmail) is recommended.

Simply copy the table and text abowe and paste it into your message at HTML format or download PDF version: